ABOUT OUR SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER:

Frank W. Abagnale is one of the world's most respected authorities on the subjects of forgery, embezzlement and secure documents. For over forty years he has lectured to and consulted with hundreds of financial institutions, corporations and government agencies around the world.

"I did not make this film about Frank Abagnale because of what he did ... but because of what he has done with his life the past 30 years."

Steven Spielberg

The real-life con man played by Leonardo DiCaprio in 'Catch Me If You Can' says check fraud is 'a thousand times easier' today

Mr. Abagnale has been associated with the FBI for over four decades. He lectures extensively at the FBI Academy and for the field offices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He is a faculty member at the National Advocacy Center (NAC) which is operated by the Department of Justice, Executive Office for United States Attorneys. More than 14,000 financial institutions, corporations and law enforcement agencies use his fraud prevention programs.

Today the majority of Mr. Abagnale's work is for the U. S. government.
