

2021 Charles W. Wolford Award

Presented to Tony Nguyen

For Outstanding Efforts in Promoting Our Science and Association

It is with great pleasure that Tony Nguyen, SCAFO 2015 Past-President and SCAFO past-Editor, was presented the Charles W. Wolford Award at our December 4, 2021 Bi-monthly Meeting.

Tony served on the SCAFO Executive Board in various positions including taking on the duties as Editor of The Print in 2010. In 2015, Tony was elected as SCAFO's 78th President and continued on after his Presidency to serve as Editor. Tony certainly made an impact making each edition filled with excellent articles and keeping Our Association informed of many new developments in the Science of Forensic Identification.

Even though Tony is stepping down as our Association Editor, beginning in 2022, He will still make an impact on our science community by currently serving as the President for the California State Division of the International Association for Identification. Tony will continue his service to our Association by assisting our new our Association's editor to ensure a smooth transition.

Tony's commitment to the SCAFO Executive Board and Our Association members over the years, purely makes him an excellent nominee for the Charles W. Wolford Award, he continues to demonstrates an extraordinary commitment to not only our Association but to the Forensic Science community.

Through the many changes in SCAFO leadership, Tony has continued to made a difference within SCAFO and has exemplified the mission of Our Association. Tony's skills, knowledge, willingness to help others, and dedication to our Association and Forensic community truly embodies the meaning of the Charles W. Wolford Award.
